

ESYO'S CHIME TEACHING ARTISTS: Woodwind Teacher

Woodwind Teaching Artist Summary:

ESYO'S CHIME is an intensive music education program for students in the Capital Region of New York run by the Empire State Youth Orchestras. It is inspired by El Sistema, a "social justice first" program that uses the model of an orchestra to foster a sense of community and to cultivate self-worth. ESYO's CHIME seeks to provide underserved children access to high quality musical instruction and to engage them in rich ensemble experiences. The Teaching Artist will work to inspire and motivate children to participate to their fullest potential. Experience in conducting, teaching band instruments with a special focus on beginner recorder, and a belief in music as a vehicle for social change is a must.
