Sherlock Holms

And the

Case of the Missing Concert Ticket

Join super sleuth Sherlock Holmes as he attempts to solve the Case of the Missing Concert Ticket. Before Sherlock can accept the case, however, he must know everything there is to know about a concert. You see, he has never been to one before! He doesn't even know what a concert really is!

With the help of the audience, our detective will interview the conductor – but first he will have to find her and he will need the help of student sleuths. He will question the concertmaster of the Empire State Youth Orchestra. He will meet the soloist who will be performing a concerto. Sherlock will investigate every section of the orchestra. He and his audience of detectives will listen to excerpts from an overture, a concerto, a symphony, and an encore – all parts of what typically make up a concert program.

By the end of the Empire State Youth Orchestra's fifty-minute program, both Sherlock Holmes and his trusty group of student sleuths will know what to expect when they go to a concert AND will solve the Case of the Missing Concert Ticket!

If you and your students want to join the hunt, please fill out the accompanying registration form and return it with your payment to ESYO by October 3rd.

To help you prepare your students for this concert we will send you a Teacher's Guide chock full of suggestions and lesson plans. All of your students who attend the Young People's Concert will receive a free ticket for themselves and discounted tickets for their parents and teachers to the Youth Orchestra's concert at the Troy Savings Bank Music Hall on Sunday, November 11th. Please plan to join us!
