JACOB EFTHIMIOU

Jacob Efthimiou has been a member of the Empire State Youth Orchestra since 2009. In July 2012, he was principal cellist during ESYO's concert tour in China and South Korea. His many accomplishments include winning the New York Summer Music Festival's 2012 concerto competition and 3rd prize in the 2012 Anthony R. Stefan Scholarship Competition.

Along with his three siblings, Jacob was featured on WSKG Public Television's "Expressions" Series. A student of the cello for ten years, he began his musical instruction with Julian Wilcox followed by extensive cello study under Benjamin Whittenburg. Currently he studies with Nathaniel Parke. For the past three summers Jacob has attended the New York Summer Music Festival where he studies with Ella Toovy and Ole Akahoshi. He has performed with the Little Delaware Chamber Players and was a member of the Little Delaware Youth Ensemble for many years. He was a member of "Footlights," a youth acting company, and remains active with the Central Delaware County Home School Drama Club. Jacob hopes to study both music and academics at the college level in the fall of 2013.
