The Empire State Youth Orchestra, Rebecca Calos, Executive Director, is a non-profit organization that began in 1979 with one orchestra consisting of some of the Capital Regions finest student musicians. Today, the membership is over 300 students from more than 75 schools and home-schools in the greater Capital Region and Western New England. Currently, there are 9 performing groups: 2 full orchestras; a wind orchestra; a string ensemble; 2 jazz ensembles; 3 percussion ensembles. Each group is conducted and coached by professional musicians. For more information about the Empire State Youth Orchestra use the ESYO.org link or call 518-382-7581.
