PROGRAMS & WORKSHOPS

Open Rehearsal with Anna Rakitina and the BSO

Saturday, 8/14, 10:30am, Tanglewood

$20 member tickets if purchased by August 10th; after August 10th, tickets must be purchased through the Tanglewood box office at full price

Boston Symphony Orchestra conductor Anna Rakitina will lead a rehearsal of Elgar's "Enigma Variations," a new work by Elena Langer, and Maurice Ravel's Piano Concerto in G with pianist Jean-Yves Thibaudet. After the rehearsal, get together with your friends and Education Director, Dr. David Bebe, for a discussion of the rehearsal.

Sounds of Nature Hikes

Tuesday, 8/17, 10:00am, Thatcher Park

Tuesday, 8/24, 10:00am, Albany Pine Bush

Free Admission

Thatcher Park | Tuesday, August 17, 2021 at 10:00 AM- ESYO Conductors invite you to join them for a hike along the Helderberg Escarpment, and be inspired by the sounds of nature. Keep your eyes open for ancient fossils as you trek alongside Thacher Park's limestone rockface on the Indian Ladder Tail, then take in the panoramic views of the Mohawk-Hudson Valley and the Adirondacks and the Green Mountains.

Albany Pine Bush | Tuesday, August 24, 2021 at 10:00 AM- ESYO Conductors invite you to join them for a hike through the rolling sand dunes of Albany's rare inland pine barren. Stroll along this federally protected preserve, and see if you can find the endangered Blue Karner Butterfly, the flagship Pitch Pine, Wild Blue Lupine, and the Eastern Hognose Snake, a snake known for its acting abilities.
